BESPOKE FURNITURE, HANDCRAFTED IN LONDON

Blackbird Bespoke specialise in distinctive and contemporary metal furniture. Our unique collection of furniture, lighting and mirrors are individually handcrafted by our highly-skilled craftsmen to create authentic, luxuriant finishes.

With simplicity at the core of our design, we take inspiration from the world around us to create timeless pieces of furniture that are built to last. We combine traditional blacksmithing skills with modern proprietary tools and techniques to create sculptural, luxury pieces of furniture.

We're extremely proud to design and handcraft all of our pieces at our Central London workshop, a place we've called home for the last 60 years. It is the creative heart of our business and where we transform our ideas and bring them to life.

As well as customising our existing designs by size, colour and finish, we also collaborate with private clients, architects and designers looking to commission original pieces. Whether we are working to a specific brief or a simple sketched idea, our team of skilled artisans will develop solutions and suggestions to turn your bespoke furniture requirements into reality.
